One of the odd things about the Government these days is the number of dyed in the wool food fanatics who have gotten sandwiched into the various levels of the bureaucracy along with others who are bound & determined to tell you and me how to live, what to eat & drink and the farther this kind of thing goes the more of these kooks surface.

New we shint never seen any great amount of Public Support for the continued vicious and dishonest attacks being made on meat and the meat industry by Bureaucrats in just about every Department of the Government. As a matter of plain fact the Village Idiots know that meat is the most popular food item with man and that 80% of Americans and about the biggest complaint against meat among the average Americans has been the price and the fact that they would like meat meet on the table for less money so they can enjoy their favorite food more often (CONT. John Connally, John Wayne Will Highlight TSCRA Convention At San Antonio As 2nd Century Starts

JOHN WAYNE

JOHN CONNALLY

Fort Worth—John Wayne, a legendary international movie personality, agribusinessman and cattleman, will make a special appearance at the 201st annual convention and trade show of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association, March 26-29 in the San Antonio Convention Center.

Wayne, whose 26 Bar registered Hereford ranch in Arizona is respected throughout the Hereford world for its breeding stock, will open the convention and share the platform with another well-known cattleman, John B. Connally, at the kickoff luncheon Monday, March 27. The statesman and former Texas governor will deliver the keynote address to more than 2,500 cattlemen and their families expected at the luncheon.

All meetings and most social activities will be held in the San Antonio Convention Center, says TSCRA President J. A. Whittenburg III of Amarillo. All meetings are open to convention registrants.

"We are especially honored to have John Wayne with us to celebrate the beginning of our second century of service to cattlemen. The 'Duke' is a great American and advocate of the free enterprise system. His typical portrayal of old-time cowman, like those who founded our Association, has endeared him to us all," Whittenburg said.
